Dear: Partners and customers of MBK GROUP

RE: Kindly refrain from giving gifts to management and employees of MBK GROUP

MBK Public Company Limited and businesses under the MBK GROUP would like to extend our appreciation for your cooperation and continued support to the MBK GROUP. The management team, together with our employees, at the MBK GROUP, is committed to deliver happiness through our products and services to our partners and customers, under the "Happiness for All" concept. The Group values transparency and good governance in our business operation and does not withstand any act and form of corruption, which in turn contributes to the nation's economic and social progress, as well as to promote business justice for all.

In addition, MBK GROUP partners with the government and private sector, under the "Thailand's Private Collective Action against Corruption (CAC)" program, to establish anti-corruption policies and measures, to provide a practical guideline and create a good foundation for collaboration. MBK GROUP has already announced its anti-corruption policies and measures on the website.

With our commitment, the MBK GROUP would like to cordially ask for your cooperation on our "no gift" policy and that you kindly refrain from giving gifts to any of the MBK GROUP's management and employees during the New Year festival or for any other occasion. Gifts include products and services, provided directly or discounts, and the payment of services, for example, travel and accommodation. MBK GROUP would like to receive your well wishes through strengthening our partnership into the future.

The MBK GROUP would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your cooperation.

Yours faithfully

(Suvait Theeravachirakul)

President and CEO

MBK Public Company Limited
